You further acknowledge your obligations under the TD Ameritrade Singapore Customer Agreement to ensure all information provided by you to TD Ameritrade Singapore is at all times accurate and up to date, to regularly review all information provided by you to verify its accuracy, and to immediately notify TD Ameritrade Singapore in writing of any change to any of the information provided. TD Ameritrade Singapore provides notifications to you annually via email and on each account statement reminding you to review all of your account information and you agree upon receipt of these reminders to verify all account information provided by you is accurate and up to date.

You acknowledge and agree that through your continued use of the TD Ameritrade Singapore website and trading platforms and unless otherwise notified in writing, all account information provided by you and held by TD Ameritrade Singapore is accurate and up to date.

Consent to Electronically Delivered Official Notices

TD Ameritrade Singapore is a holder of a capital markets services license for dealing in securities, trading in futures contracts, securities financing, and providing custodial services for securities under the Securities and Futures Act, Chapter 289 of Singapore. By specifically consenting to electronic delivery you are giving your informed consent to electronic delivery of all Account Notices (defined below). "Account Notices" mean all current and future Account Statements, Trade Confirmations, notices, disclosures, regulatory (binding or official) communications (including prospectuses, proxy solicitations, and privacy notices) and other information, documents, data, and records regarding your TD Ameritrade Singapore account. You are also giving your informed consent to receipt of communications by telephone (cellular or otherwise). This consent will be effective immediately and will remain in effect unless and until either you or TD Ameritrade Singapore revoke such consent. You understand that it may take up to three (3) business days to process a revocation of consent to electronic delivery, and you may receive electronic notifications in the interim.

It is your obligation to review trade confirmations and Account statements promptly upon receipt. These documents will be considered binding on you unless you notify us of any objections within five days from the date confirmations are sent and within 10 days after Account statements are sent.

Revocation of Consent

You may revoke your consent to electronic delivery of Account Notices anytime, subject to the terms of this Agreement, by notifying TD Ameritrade Singapore in writing of your intention to do so. Such revocation is not effective until received and acknowledged by TD Ameritrade Singapore. You have the right to request paper delivery of any Account Notices that the law requires TD Ameritrade Singapore to provide to you in paper form. However, you understand that if you revoke or restrict your consent to electronic delivery of Account Notices or request paper delivery, TD Ameritrade Singapore, at its discretion, may charge a reasonable service fee for the delivery of Account Notices that would otherwise be delivered electronically, restrict or terminate access to the electronically delivered Account Notice service, or may restrict or close the Account.

Waiver of Mailed Delivery of Notices

By consenting to electronic delivery of binding communications, including confirmations and statements, you agree to the termination of distribution of such notices by Mail. You agree that TD Ameritrade Singapore fulfills its legal obligation to deliver to you any such document if sent via electronic delivery.

You must notify us if you are unable receive electronically delivered documents.

Should you experience any difficulty opening a document electronically delivered by us, you will promptly notify us in order to allow us to make the required delivery by other means or otherwise amend delivery. Failure to advise us of such difficulty within forty-eight (48) hours after delivery shall serve as an affirmation that you were able to receive and open said document. In the event that an email notification sent to you is returned to TD Ameritrade Singapore as undeliverable, TD Ameritrade Singapore will contact you.

You may terminate the option to receive electronic confirmation statements and/or electronic delivery of prospectus/proxy materials at any time by contacting us or by updating your account preferences within the website. Notwithstanding the process above, TD Ameritrade Singapore at its discretion may terminate electronic delivery at any time and resume delivery of mailed Account Notices.

You agree to promptly notify us of any change in the email address(es) provided for delivery of electronic confirmation and account statements. There may be charges associated with accessing an Internet service provider who provides email service, and you agree to promptly notify us if your access to email communication and the ability to receive these electronic documents from TD Ameritrade Singapore is terminated for any reason. You understand that there are minimum computer hardware and software requirements necessary for you to receive and view your documents online, and you agree to maintain those requirements or notify us promptly of your inability to view the documents.
